Tonight is the vinyl release party for Virgin Mary Pistol Grip's new album Where Time Went. The long running area rock band will be at Reverb Lounge tonight with Dear Neighbor and Waiting for Perry. The band's single "Give Me A Reason" has been in rotation for me all week, and it's a really nice slice of power pop goodness. The full album dropped on streaming yesterday, so you can binge it all day and sing along to the tunes tonight.

Porno For Pyros will bring their reunion/farewell tour to LaVista tonight for a performance at The Astro. Perry Farrell and Co. have released a few new songs recently, and a couple of them I like a lot. Minutemen and FIREHOSE bassist Mike Watt will be on stage with them tonight, which is typically worth the price of admission to any show. Opening the show will be Tigercub and I published an interview with them earlier this week that you can read here.

There is a lot more happening tonight. I might be going for double duty tonight and hitting both Porno for Pyros and The Damn Quails at Bucks Bar & Grill. This is a rescheduled show with the weather we had last month. The Damn Quails are an Americana group from Oklahoma that have been going for awhile now. They are a really cool band to have at Buck's, and I would be front and center most nights, but hopefully I will be heading in late and catching a bit of it.

I don't see a lot of information on this, but Benson Theatre has Omaha hip-hop artist Toot listed as The Experience of Toot. Toot is one of the old school rappers in Omaha, and if he is doing an event, it should be on people's radar. If anyone has any more information, put it in the comments.

Also happening tonight is a four band bill at Slowdown with Garst, Social Cinema, JACK and Bad Self Portraits. Used Cars will bring the 80's to Maloney's tonight. Jason Mayer is at Barnato this evening, with Brooke Beucler also on the bill. They are listing this as her Omaha debut under her name, but she has, of course, been involved in the area music scene for a long time.

Lincoln has Pink Floyd tribute act Floyd at Bourbon Theatre, Big Daddy Caleb at The Zoo Bar, and popular viral act Postmodern Jukebox at Lied Center.

Here is the full list of events tonight. We will be back tomorrow with the album list and the March Music Preview. As always, thank you for reading, subscribing and letting others know about Omaha Buzz.
